SO, WHAT'S THE CALL?

During a recent Iditarod race in Alaska, sled "A"'s owner insisted on a salary cap for his team, cutting Milkbones rations from four-a-day to two-a-day.

The dogs agreed but on one condition—they no longer would pull the sled.
SO, WHAT'S THE CALL?
Is this a legal formation?

According to rule 09125-69/3(b) 3-D(c)(c)835/F47 of the Iditarod rulebook: "Anything to make this incredibly boring sport more interesting is legal."

STAR WRECK

DEGENERATIONS

WRITER: LOU SILVERSTONE

ARTIST: JOHN SEVERIN

I'd be honored if you'd sit in the Captain's chair and gave the order to get underway.

Take it out.

Sir, we're getting a distress call.

That figures. I never should have let Quirk sit in that chair.

This is the transport ship Latka, we're caught in an energy distortion and we can't break free...BZZZ...GACKKKK

Aye, the old "bzzz gackkkk" distress call. It seems a wee bit like old times, Captain.

Warp speed, move within transporter range and beam those people aboard.

That gravimetric distortion could tear us apart.

Captain, risk is part of the game if you want to sit in this chair. But the rewards are worth it—a long running TV show, movies, books, toys, trading cards...

I've managed to beam 2 survivors aboard.

Yo, I'm Guinerd, your ageless bartender. I'm here for comic relief.

I'm Dr. Serutan, I'm ageless, too. You won't see me again for 78 years and I won't look a day older.

Hull integrity failing, engine not responding.

Inertia dampers failing, the rear defogger is out, the windshield wipers are malfunctioning, the coffee-maker isn't working...

I don't want to die on my first mission.

Relax, I've cheated death 176 times, not counting reruns.

Fire a photon torpedo, it will disrupt the field long enough for us to break away.

We don't have any photon torpedoes. The torpedo workers are on strike, they object to having a salary cap.

Good, that gives me an opportunity to improvise. I have a solution that only a Trekkie would understand. We can simulate a torpedo blast by using a resonance burst from the main deflector. Mr. Scott, hold the ship together until I get back.

Aye, Captain. Has anyone got Scotch tape, paper clips, chewing gum or Superglue?

We're breaking free, Quirk did it!

Damage report—buckling on the starboard nacelle, a break in the hull of the deflector relay deck.

Hoot mon, that's where Captain Quirk was.

HALLP!

I'm afraid it's over, Mr. Checkov.

It ain't over 'til the fat lady sings.

THE HOLE IN THE WALL GANG?

Ohh, say can you see...

78 years later. (No, this isn't a road company version of HMS Pinafore. It's a party celebrating the promotion of Mr. Barf.)

Mr. Barf, you have been found guilty of performing above and beyond the line of duty, which is amazing considering that you are a Klingon. Your punishment is as follows: you are hereby promoted to the rank of Lt. Commander, and you are sentenced to walk the plank.

But Klingons can't swim.

Don't worry, Barf, the sharks will eat you before you drown. Haha.

Haha, this is a riot. I'm glad that my humor chip was activated so I can appreciate the fun in seeing somebody pushed into freezing, shark-infested water. Haha.

What the...

Haha, that's a whoopie cushion Captain, haha. Here, smell my flower, haha.

We're picking up a distress call from the Amapola Observatory. They're under attack.

All hands on deck.

Haha, whatever you say, Captain.

Doodoo, that's not funny. Here, take the wheel.

Where shall I take it? Haha.

The sensor shows signs of life aboard the station.

Number One, take a party and investigate. Make it so.

So what, Captain? Sew buttons? Sow seeds? I got it, so long, haha.

If I find out who activated Doodoo's humor chip, I'll have him drawn and quartered.

Captain, is something wrong?

I just received word that my brother and his son were killed.

But I thought that would make you happy since you hated them.

I did, but now there are no more Discards to carry on the family tradition. A Discard was General Custer's advisor at Little Big Horn. A Discard was in charge at the Alamo. A Discard planned the Bay of Pigs. A Discard was in command at Pearl Harbor. I'm the last of the Discards.

Perhaps it's just as well, Captain.

The Amapola Observatory.

This is the work of the Klingons.

Sorry, I didn't mean to offend you.

I resent that.

Klingons would never do a sloppy job like this and leave survivors!

Hi, remember me?

I am not supposed to be here but the editors asked me to try and make some logical sense out of an illogical, senseless plot. The survivors were taken back to the Exitprize. Doodoo and La Fudge, accompanied by Dr. Serutan, returned to the Observatory.

A guy walks into a bar and orders a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The bartender says, 'What's that?' Guy says, 'One drink and you're a new man,' Haha.

Why are you hitting me, he's the one telling the lousy jokes.

Back on the Exitprize.

"Discard talked the Doo Wopp girls into a prisoner exchange. The Doo Wopp sisters planted a secret camera in La Fudge's body to spy on the Exitprize."

"The Klingon bird of prey attacks the Exitprize."

"The Klingon ship was destroyed and the mortally wounded Exitprize crashed in a rain forest."

"Captain Discard has been beamed to a mountain top where he confronts Serutan who is about to launch a solar probe."

"Discard's long, boring speech causes Serutan to fall asleep and he accidentally launches the probe. YAWNNN."

What occurs next can't even be explained by a Vulcan. Therefore, I am bailing out. Beam me aboard, Mr. Scott.

Dr. Serutan, do you realize how many innocent lives will be lost if you launch that probe? There must be another way to get to Neverland. You might try Fed Ex. The fault, dear Serutan, is not in our stars but in ourselves, that we are underlings. To be or not to be, that is the question, etc. etc.

Where am I?

You're home, papa.

God bless us everyone.

This can't be. I was never married and never had children.

Welcome to Neverland, Captain.

This can't be real.

It's as real as you want it to be, Captain. Isn't it great?

What's so great about it? I've got 5 kids and I never even got to sleep with a woman.

There's someone I want you to meet.

Meet Captain Quirk.

I'm Captain Discard. I'm from the future.

How can this be the future when this is the past? This is my dog, Jake, he died 7 years ago.

Yeah, like don't you think it's time to bury that sucker?

We're on my uncle's farm in Iowa, my live-in girlfriend is in the kitchen. Mmm, smell that food!

I know all of this seems real but we've been caught up in a temporal nexus. Actually, you're dead, you were killed back on page 8.

Let me get this straight. I'm really dead and this is the 24th century! I wish Spock was here to explain this to me.

Forget it, man, even he couldn't understand this. That's why he split.

You have to come with me and stop Serutan from destroying a star. We'll save millions of lives. Even though you're officially dead, you're still a Star Fleet officer. It's your duty.

What will happen if I go with you?

"You will fight Dr. Serutan while I shut down the launcher."

Oooff!

Uhm, let's see, which button do I push?

"Unfortunately, you will be killed but the probe will be stopped. We will have made a difference."

Okay, I get the crap kicked out of me and then I'm killed. This time I'm dead for good, right?

Correct and I'll go back to being a Star Fleet Commander until I retire to the Star Fleet nursing home, where I'll sit around with a bunch of senile veterans.

Three—one to hold the bulb, two to turn the ladder, hah.

What the hell, are we both nuts? We're staying right here.

I have 5 kids, who's to say I can't have 5 more?

Way to go, Captain.

And so Quirk and Discard went boldly forth to where no man had gone before, back to the future, or maybe it was forward to the past. Anyway, they lived happily ever after.

THE NBA BAM RULEBOOK

Writer: Steve Strangio

Artist: Rurik Tyler

Go to the hole. Go strong. Get rough. Get tough. Get killed. Slam it in the hole. Ram it in the nose. Kick it in the groin. You're on fire! Shatter the glass! Destroy the court! Blow up the entire arena!!! Get in your car! Kill pedestrians! Go to a mall! Strangle shoppers! AUUGHH!!! (Huff-puff...wheeze) DESTROY!!! SMASH!!! THIS IS NBA BAM!

All of the hard-hitting hardwood action is here, along with death-defying maneuvers, spleen-shattering defense, head-exploding offense, and total bloody pandemonium! You'll get high body-count, new features like "missing limb mode," and you'll enjoy playing alongside superstars who were too violent for the NBA!

LET'S BAM!!!

Drone Difficulty: Allows you to select how smart your computer opponents are on a scale of 1 (low) to 5 (high).

Example of 1

Example of 5

To begin playing NBA BAM, select either the HEAD-TO-HEAD or GUN-TO-HEAD mode from the controller.

There are many different positions to NBA BAM. Players number 1 and 2 are teammates, and 3 and 4 are on the other team. Players 1 and 3 are teammates, and 2 and 4 oppose them. If 3 and 2 can't get along, and 4 and 1 irritate each other, then 2 can make fun of 4 and 1 can give a wedgie to 3. If 1 and 2 and 3 and 4 can't do anything right, then the entire crowd gets to kick the crap out of them.

*Use the RIOT MODE for this option.

Pressing the "A, E, I, O, U" (and sometimes "Y") buttons, while licking the right-diagonal on the control pad, switches which of the teammates the player controls.

Pressing the X, Y, or Z buttons, tapping "diagonal-down-left", "up", four times, "diagonal-down-right" 46 times while rubbing peanut butter in your hair, chooses the amount of innocent bystanders who will be killed during the game.

Pressing the W button does absolutely nothing, so don't press it...stupid.

The object of the game is to beat your opponents to a bloody pulp while outscoring them. A 24-second shotgun clock is in effect...shoot for a basket within that time and nobody gets hurt! Rip off your opponent's head for extra points!

If a player scores three baskets in a row, he is "ON FIRE!" The player now has unlimited turbo and extensive third degree burns.

STEAL/DESTROY: When your team does not have the ball tapping button "B" once causes your player to swipe at the ball. Tapping twice punches the opposing player in the eye. Tapping it three times kicks him in the gut, tapping it four times knocks him in the head with a chair. Tapping it five times runs him over with a Buick. And tapping it six times blows him up with a nuclear warhead.

SPECIAL FEATURE: Tapping TURBO several thousand times quickly causes your finger to swell-up, blister and crack open in a putrid gush of goop! GO FOR IT!!!

5 Pressing the TURBO-BOOST button near the basket allows you to go for a MEGA-JAM! This will shatter the backboard and several

Some Americans want the USA to take up the role of policeman to the world and get involved in every crisis from Haiti to Bosnia. But these are far from being the only trouble spots, which makes us wonder what listening to the global police scanner for just a single day might be like...

MORE HORRORS FROM THE CRACKED PEN OF DON OREHEK

Every schoolboy knows the story of the fall of Troy by means of ancient stealth technology, i.e., the Trojan Horse. Less well known, however, is the development of the horse itself. Here then are...

TROJAN HORSE DESIGNS THAT DIDN'T QVITE MAKE IT.

BY TERRY COLON

THE TROJAN COCKROACH

The horse was not the first animal with which the Greeks tried to sneak an army into Troy. In fact their very first idea was this giant insect. Unfortunately, it was easily repulsed by the TROJAN BOOT in its first and only encounter.

THE TROJAN CENTIPEDE was another early design that seemed like a good idea at the time but fooled absolutely nobody as to its covert intent.

THE TROJAN WIENER DOG. Because the obviously limited interior space caused the troops inside to cramp up severely, once they emerged they were easily overcome by a surprised but fully erect foe.

THE TROJAN HORS D'OEUVRES
At some point an equine design was suggested. But because of a poor translation of 'horse' into French the Parisian builders mistakenly concocted this giant cocktail weenie. This design proved an unmitigated disaster as Trojan troops, delirious from starvation due to the long siege, tried to roast it over an open fire.

THE TROJAN PIG had room enough for a full complement of troops but was nonetheless returned with regrets because of a little-known historical fact - the Trojans were kosher.

THE TROJAN SEA HORSE was an elegant and novel approach and might have fared better had it not been for the enormous weight of the fully armored, heavily armed contingent inside.

THE SICILIAN HORSE was designed by Leonardo "Mad Dog" DaVinci and built by Michelangelo "The Bull" Buonarroti at the Corleone family workshop in Palermo. It was thought such a gift was an offer the Trojans couldn't refuse.

Emergency rations

Triple redundant ventilation system (3 squirrels)

THE B-1 MODEL TROJAN HORSE was designed to meet the specifications of 37 different Kings, Princes, Warlords and Potentates. It was so expensive to produce there was only enough treasure left to hire a single mercenary who, though armed to the teeth and well supplied, proved inadequate for the task at hand.

Slave activated emergency escape hatch

Cattle prod to activate slave activated emergency escape hatch

Airbag system (in case slave activated emergency escape hatch system fails)

Aspirin (in case all of the above fail)

Front and rear 5 mph bumpers (slaves with rubber soled sandals)

THE TROJAN ROCKING HORSE was an unqualified failure as the troops inside suffered from motion sickness and were to a man unfit to fight.

THE TROJAN HOBBY HORSE stood well over 60 feet tall and held up to 40 soldiers ready to slide down the long pole and swing into action. This scheme was abandoned as no 80 foot tall Greek could be found to deliver it.

This government mandated truth-in-packaging sticker was decidedly ill-advised.

CONTENTS: 40 swordsmen,
30 lancers, 25 bowmen,
4 sergeants, 1 captain,
2 lieutenants.

This design seemed to have solved every problem, that is until the troops saw the entry hatch location and refused to embark.

Rayon, I want that 650 million dollars, it belongs to us. We can put it to good use.

Do you intend to use that money in the war on drugs?

No, for my reelection campaign.

With that kind of bread we can buy our own TV network.

Later. The President with his top advisors.

The drug cartel represents a clear and present danger to the U.S. By God, we have to take some action! I promised the American people I would do something about the drug problem.

You have, sir. You appointed more committees to investigate the drug problem than any other president in history.

And don't forget about the great Drugs Suck TV commercials.

They were cool, heh heh.

We have to do more. I'm suggesting an illegal covert action against the drug cartel. But don't tell me about it.

Yes sir, you want to protect the presidency.

No, I want to protect my ass in case you guys screw it up.

Bogota, Colombia.

Señor Excremento, I am your lawyer and you pay me for my advice. You can't go around killing friends of the presidente de los Estados Unidos.

Eet's a free country, I keel wha I want. And eef that machine strikes me out one more time I weel keel you. You advised me to buy eet. You should have hired one of those Met pitchers that are on strike. Anybody can hit them.

Washington, D.C., Walter Reed Hospital.

Jock, I have some bad news, I'm dying.

That's a relief, I was afraid you were caught violating the Honor Code.

Jock, I want you to take over for me.

You want me to die instead of you?

No, to take my job. And Jock, watch your back.

I do, sir. I wash my back and behind my ears every night.

CIA Headquarters, Langley, VA.

I'm appointing Jock Rayon Acting Deputy Director of the CIA.

Rayon? I can't believe it, he's such a Boy Scout.

BAY OF PIGS

Sorry I'm late, I had to help an old lady cross the street.

Somewhere in Panama.

Mr. Lark, the President wants retribution against the drug cartel. You can have anything you need in way of weapons, materiel and man power.

I'll need a group of Special Forces, all Hispanics.

I don't know. If word ever leaked out, we would be in trouble.

Since when did illegal operations bother you guys?

It's not that. Your team isn't politically correct. There are no Native Americans, African-Americans, Eskimo-Americans...

Washington, D.C., The U.S. Senate.

Mr. Rayon, you are asking for financial aid to assist the Colombians in their struggle against the drug cartel. Will any of this money be used for weapons or covert operations?

No, Senator, we are just giving the Colombians advice and supplies.

How do I know you're telling me the truth?

Would the head of the CIA lie?

Good job of camouflage, Sgt., I thought you were a tree.

So does this dog. Get outta here, you mutt!

WORKERS PROCESSING DRUGS DEPT.

Open fire!

Damn bird, build a nest somewhere else.

You feelthy peeegs weel pay for thees!

Bogota, Colombia. A few days later.

BAM BLOOM!
BAM BLOOM!

ZZIPPP

Gosh, what a welcome, fireworks and a motorcycle escort.

Later...

Here, have a drink.

Cough, gasp, we're not supposed to drink the water here.

In your case I don't think it matters.

We interrupt this program to bring you a special bulletin. The U.S. Ambassador and the head of the FBI were killed in an ambush in Bogota, Colombia.

How dare they! How dare they interrupt the O.J. Simpson trial! Just when it got to the gory stuff. Get me Peter Jennings on the phone!

We received information that all the drug lords will be attending a birthday party for Excremento's son.

That's our target. I want their candles blown out.

Colombia.

Bravo Whiskey, this is Zulu X-ray, over.

Why the hell can't you guys speak English? If you're the plane that's carrying the missile, fire it!

That's a Roger, Bravo Whiskey!

Happy Birthday to you...Happy...

YAHHHHHHHH!!!

Operation Party Pooper was a success, sir.

Good! Were the heads of the cartel terminated?

No, they managed to escape. But we did kill several innocent women and children.

I thought you said it was a success.

It was by CIA standards. Compared to the Bay of Pigs, this was a touchdown.

My administration can't stand anymore of your successes. Read my lips—I want this thing to go away. It never happened.

Right, sir. If anybody asks me, I'll say I can't recall. I don't remember.

Bogota, Colombia.

Here's the deal. I'll take care of the drug lords and be the sole supplier of the drugs Americans crave so much. There will be a shortage so the street price will go up.

I like it, less drugs on the street, no gang wars. It will make the President look good.

I need the location of your troops in Colombia so I can capture them. It will make me a local hero.

You got it. Hell, we lose more guys than that to friendly fire in a training operation.

I also want tickets to the Super Bowl.

You drug lords sure drive a hard bargain.

CIA Headquarters, Langley, VA.

SURPRISE! THE US GOVT. IS BEHIND OPERATION RETRIBUTION

HAVE A NICE DAY DOPE.

SOMEBODY IS ACCESSING YOUR SECRET FILES

Jock, what are you doing?

Uh, I'm playing NBA JAM. I'm going for a slam dunk.

I just stuffed it.

Foul. you hacked me!

serious crime, but not as serious as lying to Congress. You swore that the money wouldn't be used for a covert operation. Do you know what happens to people who lie under oath?

They make a fortune on the lecture circuit and run for the Senate.

Who ordered this operation?

I'll give you a hint, when he enters a room, the band plays Hail to the Chief.

Umm, Michael Jackson? George Steinbrenner? Edward Platt?

No, you schmuck, it's the President of the United States.

Lark, the operation is shut down. Rayon pulled the plug.

That /&*&$-!! Send in air so I can get my men out.

There is no air, the operation is over. Rayon's orders.

I'll kill him!

Good! The man is a disgrace to the CIA. He's honest.

Bogota, Colombia.

Get in, Rayon, I'm going to kill you.

Some greeting. Couldn't you say, 'Hi, did you have a good trip?' and then kill me? Look, Fritter shut down the operation. I came here to help you rescue your men.

How can you help? I need a chopper.

I'll get a chopper by using good old American ingenuity, know-how and my credit card.

They should be here. Sgt., where are the rest of your men?

I buried them, sir.

Why did you do that?

They were dead and starting to smell. A couple were taken prisoner.

Excremento knows where they are. I'll go see him.

How are you going to get into his compound?

Easy, I'll disguise myself as an Avon Lady and ring his bell.

Where's Rambo when you need him?

How did you make out?

Great. He ordered two jars of hand cream and a bottle of cologne.

How about the prisoners?

He said Morteza has them.

Come on, guys, we're outta here Rayon, you're OK.

I have a merit badge in Prisoner Rescuing.

Come on, Rayon, let's go!

I'm coming. Hey, it ain't easy running in these heels.

Washington, D.C. The White House.

How dare you talk to me that way? I'm the President! Look, Jock, you're patriotic. Hell, you're even an Eagle Scout. You know the country can't stand another scandal. Congress is still bogged down in that Whitewater mess and Clinton's been out of office for 4 years.

Sorry, sir, it's my duty to report this to the Congress.

I'll appoint you to the Cabinet, you can put your family on the payroll. You'll get free medical coverage even if congress never passes a health bill. Whenever you want to play golf you can use a government plane, you'll have a chauffeur-driven limo and when you leave the government, you'll get a megabuck job as a lobbyist.

Sorry, sir, I'm sure you know I have a merit badge in Whistle Blowing.

Epilogue: The American people turned President Bunglett out of office and in his place elected a man with a level of intelligence the average citizen could relate to and identify with.

Being President is like a jar of jelly beans: you never know when your hand will get stuck. This sign belonged to Pres. Truman. I wonder which Buck he meant, Buck Rogers, Buckwheat, Buck shot? It really doesn't matter much 'cause my mamma told me that a buck doesn't go very far these days. Maybe that's why it stops here.
